

NOW HIRING: DIETARY AIDE – FOOD PREP & SERVICE SUPPORT

Looking for a fast-paced, hands-on job with no late nights and a team that works together? We'd love to meet you!

Harding Place is looking for a dependable, hardworking Dietary Aide to join our restaurant team. This position works behind the scenes to support our cooks and dining room staff, helping make sure every meal is prepared, plated, and served accurately and efficiently.

You don't need to be an experienced cook, but you do need to be willing to learn, follow directions, stay organized, and do your part to keep the team moving.

What You'll Do

- Perform everyday food prep such as cutting, slicing, counting, measuring, and portioning
- Prepare and portion ingredients and menu items for meal service
- Work assigned food stations during service
- Accurately fill and plate orders as they are received from the dining room
- Pay attention to portions, presentation, and special order instructions
- Keep stations stocked, clean, organized, and ready for service
- Follow food safety, sanitation, and proper food-handling procedures
- Assist cooks and other team members with prep and service needs
- Help with cleaning and maintaining an orderly kitchen
- Jump in and help wherever needed to keep service running smoothly

What We're Looking For

Reliability and teamwork are a must.

We're looking for someone who:

- Works well as part of a team
- Listens carefully and follows directions
- Can work accurately while keeping up with the pace of meal service
- Pays attention to details and takes pride in doing things correctly
- Understands the importance of cleanliness and food safety
- Can stay organized while handling several tasks
- Is willing to learn new skills and responsibilities
- Looks for the next way to help when their immediate task is complete

 Restaurant Hours: 6:00 AM–6:00 PM

NO LATE NIGHTS!

Multiple shifts are available.

Teamwork Makes the Difference

Our restaurant depends on everyone doing their part. During meal service, cooks, dietary aides, servers, and dish staff work together as one team to make sure our patrons receive the right meal, prepared correctly and served on time.

We're looking for someone who takes pride in being the person their coworkers can count on.

Applicants must be able to pass a background check and drug screening.

If you're dependable, hardworking, willing to learn, and enjoy being part of a busy team, we'd love to meet you. Apply today!
